

WELCOME TO A LOWCOUNTRY BACKYARD!

Here you will find the BEST shrimp and grits (Voted #1 in South Carolina & One of the Best in the World) and feel the warm embrace of soul-food and good company.

Gullah culture and cooking are the roots from which Hilton Head grew, and while that culture has somewhat faded over the years, we refuse to let it die. Our collaboration and experience cooking alongside life-long Islanders has cumulated into the gift of truly authentic island cuisine.

Oyster roasts, lowcountry boils, star-lit skies and live music are what we grew up on, and we want to share those happy times with you through our tasty food, southern hospitality, and whimsical ambiance. Don't miss out! Give us a try and you will see why so many locals say that a visit to "A Lowcountry Backyard Restaurant" is a rite of passage for all who visit the island.
